LOCAL RULES FOR ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

1. PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF RULES

1-1. Title.

These are the Local Rules for Alternative Dispute Resolution in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California. They should be referred to as "ADR L.R. ____."

1-2. Purpose and Scope.

(a) Purpose. The Court recognizes that full, formal litigation of claims can impose large economic burdens on parties and can delay resolution of disputes for considerable periods. The Court also recognizes that sometimes an alternative dispute resolution procedure can improve the quality of justice by improving the parties' clarity of understanding of their case, their access to evidence, and their satisfaction with the process and result. The Court adopts these ADR Local Rules to make available to litigants a broad range of court-sponsored ADR processes to provide quicker, less expensive and potentially more satisfying alternatives to continuing litigation without impairing the quality of justice or the right to trial. The Court offers diverse ADR services to enable parties to use the ADR process that promises to deliver the greatest benefits to their particular case.

Commentary

The Alternative Dispute Resolution Act of 1998, 28 U.S.C. Sections 651-658, requires each federal district court to authorize by local rule the use of at least one ADR process in all civil actions. In accordance with § 651(c), the Court has examined the effectiveness of its ADR programs and has adopted improvements consistent with the Act.

(b) Scope. These ADR Local Rules are effective May 1, 2000 and shall govern actions pending or commenced on or after that date. These rules supplement the Civil Local Rules of the Court and, except as otherwise indicated, apply to all civil actions filed in this Court. Cases subject to these ADR Local rules also remain subject to the other local rules of the Court.

(c) Magistrate Judges Consent Cases. In cases in which the parties have consented to jurisdiction by a Magistrate Judge under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), the Magistrate Judge shall have the full scope of powers that these ADR local rules confer on District Judges, including the authority to refer cases to ADR programs and to grant relief from the requirements of these ADR local rules.

2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

2-1. ADR Unit.

(a) Staff and Responsibilities. The ADR Unit shall consist of a Director of ADR Programs, ADR Program Counsel, ADR Administrator and such case administrators and support personnel as the Court may authorize. The ADR Director and ADR Program Counsel shall be attorneys with expertise in ADR procedures. The ADR Unit shall be responsible for designing, implementing, administering and evaluating the Court's ADR programs. These responsibilities extend to educating litigants, lawyers, Judges, and Court staff about the ADR program and rules. In addition, the ADR Unit shall be responsible for overseeing, screening and training neutrals to serve in the Court's ADR programs.

(b) ADR Internet Site and Handbook. The ADR Unit's Internet site, located at <www.adr.cand.uscourts.gov>, contains information about the Court's ADR processes and their comparative benefits, answers to frequently asked questions, various forms approved by the Court, and information about becoming a neutral in the Court's programs. Much of this information is also contained in a handbook entitled Dispute Resolution Procedures in the Northern District of California which is available from the Office of the Clerk.

(c) Contacting the ADR Unit. The address, phone and fax numbers, and e-mail address of the ADR Unit are:

U.S. District Court-ADR Unit
450 Golden Gate Avenue, 16th Floor
San Francisco, CA 94102

Telephone: (415) 522-2199
Telephone for ADR Telephone Conferences only: (415) 522-4603
fax: (415) 522-4112
E-Mail: ADR@cand.uscourts.gov

Commentary

The Court encourages litigants and counsel to consult the ADR Internet site and to contact the ADR Unit to discuss the suitability of ADR options for their cases or for assistance in tailoring an ADR process to a specific case.

2-2. ADR Magistrate Judge.

The Court has appointed United States Magistrate Judge Wayne D. Brazil as the ADR Magistrate Judge. The ADR Magistrate Judge is responsible for overseeing the ADR Unit, consulting with the ADR Director and ADR Program Counsel on matters of policy, program design and evaluation, education, training and administration. The ADR Magistrate Judge shall rule on all requests to be excused from appearing in person at arbitration, ENE and mediation sessions, and shall hear and determine all complaints alleging violations of these ADR local rules. When necessary, the Chief District Judge will appoint another Magistrate Judge of this Court to perform, temporarily, the duties of the ADR Magistrate Judge.

2-3. Referral to ADR Program.

(a) At Filing. As set forth in ADR L.R. 4-2, some cases, identified by objective criteria, shall be referred to the Court's non-binding arbitration program automatically at the time of the filing of the complaint or the notice of removal. Other cases, as set forth in ADR L.R. 3-3, shall be referred to the Court's ADR Multi-Option Program. The initial case management schedule issued at filing shall state whether a case has been referred to either arbitration or the ADR Multi-Option Program.

(b) By Stipulation, Motion or Order. Subject to pertinent jurisdictional and resource constraints, a case may be referred to a Court ADR process by order of the assigned Judge following a stipulation by all parties, by motion of a party under Civil L.R. 7, or on the Judge's initiative. A stipulation and proposed order selecting an ADR process shall (1) designate the specific ADR process the parties have selected, (2) specify the time frame within which the ADR process will be completed, and (3) set forth any other information the parties would like the Court to know. The parties may use the form provided by the Court.

Commentary

A form stipulation and proposed order appears in the Appendix to these local rules and is available on the ADR Internet site.

(c) Relief from Automatic Referral. Any party whose case has been referred automatically to non-binding arbitration or the ADR Multi-Option program may file with the assigned Judge a motion for relief from automatic referral under Civil L.R. 7. The criteria under which the Judge will rule on such motions are specific to each program and are set forth below in ADR L.R. 3-5(e) and 4-2(c).

2-4. Violation of the ADR Local Rules.

(a) Reporting Violation.

(1) Complaints Alleging Material Violations. A complaint alleging that any person or party, including the neutral, has materially violated any of the ADR local rules other than ADR L.R. 7 (pertaining to judicially hosted settlement conferences) shall be presented in writing and under seal directly to the ADR Magistrate Judge. Such a letter of complaint must be accompanied by a competent declaration. Copies of the letter of complaint and declaration must be sent contemporaneously to all other parties, the neutral (if identified) and the ADR Unit. The letter of complaint and declaration shall not be filed and shall not be presented to the assigned Judge.

(2) Report by Neutral. An arbitrator, evaluator, or mediator who perceives a material violation of these ADR local rules shall make a written report under seal directly to the ADR Magistrate Judge and contemporaneously provide copies to all counsel and to the ADR Unit. Such report shall not be filed and shall not be presented to the assigned Judge.

(b) Proceeding in Response to Complaint or Report of Violation and Sanctions. If, upon receiving an appropriately presented and supported complaint or report of a material violation of these ADR local rules, the ADR Magistrate Judge determines that the matter warrants further proceedings, the ADR Magistrate Judge shall issue an order to show cause why sanctions should not be imposed. Any such proceedings shall be conducted on the record but under seal. The ADR Magistrate Judge will afford all interested parties an opportunity to be heard before deciding whether to impose sanctions. Any objections to such sanctions shall be made by motion under Civil L.R. 7 before the General Duty Judge, unless the General Duty Judge is the assigned Judge, in which case the objections shall be made to the Chief Judge. Any such objection shall be delivered to the appropriate Judge within ten days of notice of the sanctions, shall not be filed, and shall be served immediately on the ADR Magistrate Judge, all other counsel, the neutral and the ADR unit.

(c) Confidentiality. Absent a waiver of confidentiality by all necessary persons, or an order of the Court, submissions made under this rule shall not disclose confidential ADR communications.

Cross Reference

2-5. Neutrals.

(a) Panel. The ADR Unit shall maintain a panel of neutrals serving in the Court's ADR programs. Neutrals will be selected from time to time by the Court from applications submitted by lawyers willing to serve or by other persons as set forth in section (b)(3) below. The ADR Director and ADR Program Counsel may serve as neutrals.

(b) Qualifications and Training. Each lawyer serving as a neutral in a Court ADR program shall be a member of the bar of this Court or a member of the faculty of an accredited law school and shall successfully complete initial and periodic training as required by the Court. Additional minimum requirements for serving on the Court's panel of neutrals, which the Court may modify in individual circumstances for good cause, are as follows:

(1) Arbitrators. Arbitrators shall have been admitted to the practice of law for at least 10 years and shall have:

(A) For not less than five years, committed 50% or more of their professional time to matters involving litigation; or

(B) Substantial experience serving as a neutral in dispute resolution proceedings.

(2) ENE Evaluators. Evaluators shall have been admitted to the practice of law for at least 15 years and have considerable experience with civil litigation in federal court. Evaluators shall also have substantial expertise in the subject matter of the cases assigned to them and shall have the temperament and training to listen well, facilitate communication across party lines and, if called upon, assist the parties with settlement negotiations.

(3) Mediators. Generally, mediators shall have been admitted to the practice of law for at least 7 years and shall be knowledgeable about civil litigation in federal court. Mediators shall have strong mediation process skills and the temperament and training to listen well, facilitate communication across party lines and assist the parties with settlement negotiations. Mediators who are not lawyers may also be selected to serve on the Court's panel of mediators if they have appropriate professional credentials in another discipline and are knowledgeable about civil litigation in federal court. A non-lawyer mediator may be appointed to a case only with the consent of the parties.

(c) Oath. Persons serving as neutrals in any of the Court's ADR programs shall take the oath or affirmation prescribed in 28 U.S.C. § 453.

(d) Disqualification of Neutrals.

(1) Applicable Standards. No person may serve as a neutral in a case in a Court ADR program in violation of:

(A) the standards set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 455, or

(B) any applicable standard of professional responsibility or rule of professional conduct, or

(C) other guidelines adopted by the Court concerning disqualification of neutrals.

(2) Mandatory Disqualification and Notice of Recusal. A prospective neutral who discovers a circumstance requiring disqualification shall immediately notify the parties and the ADR Unit in writing. The parties may not waive a basis for disqualification that is described in 28 U.S.C. Section 455 (b).

(3) Disclosure and Waiver of Non-Mandatory Grounds for Disqualification. If a prospective neutral discovers a circumstance that would not compel disqualification under an applicable standard of professional responsibility or rule of professional conduct or other guideline, or under § 455(b), but that might be covered by § 455 (a), the neutral shall promptly disclose that circumstance to all counsel in writing, as well as the ADR Unit. A party who has an objection to the neutral based upon an allegation that the neutral has a conflict of interest shall present this objection in writing to the ADR Unit within 10 calendar days of learning the source of the potential conflict or shall be deemed to have waived objection.

(4) Objections Not Based on Disclosures by Neutral. Within ten days of learning the identity of a proposed neutral, a party who objects to service by that neutral must deliver to the ADR Unit and to all other counsel a writing that specifies the bases for the objection. The ADR Director shall determine whether the proposed neutral will serve or whether another neutral should be appointed. Appeal from such a determination must be made directly to the ADR Magistrate Judge within five days of the notice of the ADR Director's determination.

(e) Immunities. All persons serving as neutrals in any of the Court's ADR programs are performing quasi-judicial functions and are entitled to the immunities and protections that the law accords to persons serving in such capacity.

2-6. Evaluation of ADR Programs.

Congress has mandated that the Court's ADR programs be evaluated. Neutrals, counsel and clients shall promptly respond to any inquiries or questionnaires from persons authorized by the Court to evaluate the programs. Responses to such inquiries will be used for research and monitoring purposes only and the sources of specific information will not be disclosed to the assigned Judge or in any report.

3. ADR MULTI-OPTION PROGRAM

3-1. Purpose.

The ADR Multi-Option Program is designed to encourage litigants in a broad range of cases to use ADR and to provide parties with sophisticated assistance in identifying the ADR process that is best suited to their particular case.

3-2. Summary Description.

Litigants in certain cases designated when the complaint or notice of removal is filed are presumptively required to participate in one non-binding ADR process offered by the Court (Arbitration, Early Neutral Evaluation, or Mediation) or, with the assigned Judge's permission, may substitute an ADR process offered by a private provider. Unless they have stipulated to an ADR process, counsel may be required to participate in a joint phone conference with the Court's ADR Director or ADR Program Counsel to consider the suitability of the ADR options for their case. When litigants have not stipulated to an ADR process before the case management conference, the assigned Judge will discuss the ADR options with counsel at that conference. If the parties cannot agree on a process before the end of the case management conference, the Judge will select one of the ADR processes offered by the Court, or may refer the case to a settlement conference hosted by a Magistrate Judge, unless persuaded that no ADR process is likely to deliver benefits to the parties sufficient to justify the resources consumed by its use.

Cross Reference

3-3. Assignment to ADR Multi-Option Program.

(a) Automatic Assignment. Appropriate civil cases may be assigned to the ADR Multi-Option Program by the Clerk when the complaint or notice of removal is filed. Notice of such assignment will be given in the initial case management schedule issued to the filing or removing party.

(b) By Stipulation, Motion or Order. Cases not assigned at filing may be assigned to the ADR Multi-Option Program by order of the assigned Judge following a stipulation by all parties, on motion by a party under Civil L.R. 7, or on the Judge's initiative.

3-4. ADR Options.

(a) Court-Sponsored ADR Processes. The Court-sponsored ADR options for cases assigned to the ADR Multi-Option Program include:

(1) Non-binding Arbitration;

ADR Local Rules

(2) Early Neutral Evaluation (ENE); and

(3) Mediation.

(b) Private ADR. A private ADR procedure, to be conducted within the time frames set forth in these ADR local rules, may be substituted for a Court program if the parties so stipulate and the assigned Judge approves. Private ADR proceedings, however, are not subject to the enforcement, immunity or other provisions of the ADR Local Rules.

(c) Early Settlement Conference with a Magistrate Judge. A case may be referred to a settlement conference only by order of the assigned Judge.

3-5. Selecting an ADR Process.

(a) Meet and Confer to Select ADR Process. In cases assigned to the ADR Multi-Option Program, as soon as feasible after filing or removal and no later than the deadline to meet and confer, counsel shall confer to attempt to agree on an ADR process.

(b) ADR Certification. Unless otherwise ordered, no later than the date specified in the Initial Case Management Scheduling Order, counsel and client shall sign, serve and file an ADR Certification and shall provide a copy to the ADR Unit. The certification shall be filed on a form established for that purpose by the Court and in conformity with the instructions approved by the Court. If the client is a government or government agency, the certificate shall be signed by a person who meets the requirements of Civil L.R. 3-9(c). Counsel and client shall certify that both have:

(1) Read the handbook entitled “Dispute Resolution Procedures in the Northern District of California” or the portions of the ADR Unit’s Internet site <www.adr.cand.uscourts.gov> specified on the site as necessary to comply with this Local Rule;

(2) Discussed the available dispute resolution options provided by the Court and private entities; and

(3) Considered whether their case might benefit from any of the available dispute resolution options.

(c) Stipulation. If counsel agree to participate in a Court-sponsored non-binding arbitration, ENE or mediation, or in private ADR, they shall file with their ADR Certification a form Stipulation and Proposed Order selecting an ADR process.

ADR Local Rules

(d) Notice of Need for ADR Phone Conference. If counsel are unable to agree on the selection of an ADR process, or if counsel agree tentatively that they would prefer an early settlement conference with a Magistrate Judge, they shall file with their ADR Certification a Notice of Need for ADR Phone Conference.

(e) Submission to ADR Unit. A copy of the ADR Certification, along with either a Stipulation and Proposed Order selecting an ADR Process or a Notice of Need for ADR Phone Conference shall be received by the ADR Unit no later than the deadline set forth in the Initial Case Management Scheduling Order and may be submitted by fax to (415) 522-4112.

(f) Selection Through ADR Phone Conference. In cases assigned to the ADR Multi-Option Program where the parties have filed with their ADR Certification a Notice of Need for ADR Phone Conference, counsel are required to participate in a joint ADR Phone Conference at a time designated by the Court. During the phone conference, the ADR Director or ADR Program Counsel will help counsel identify the ADR process that is likely to benefit their particular case the most. The following procedures shall apply to the ADR Phone Conference:

(1) Participants. Counsel who will be primarily responsible for handling the trial of the matter shall participate in the conference. Clients and their insurance carriers are encouraged to participate as well. Counsel may request an in-person ADR conference at the Court in lieu of the phone conference by calling the ADR Unit.

(2) Placing the Conference Call. Counsel for the first-listed plaintiff in the case caption shall arrange for and place the phone conference by calling all other counsel and then the ADR phone conference number, (415) 522-4603, at the appointed time. The Court will reserve one-half hour for each such conference call.

(3) Preparation. Before the phone conference, counsel shall review with their clients these ADR Local Rules, the handbook entitled Dispute Resolution Procedures in the Northern District of California or the designated portions of the ADR Internet site.

(4) Request to Continue the ADR Phone Conference. Requests to continue the ADR Phone Conference shall be directed to the ADR Unit at (415) 522-2199.

(5) Stipulation Following ADR Phone Conference. Parties who stipulate to an ADR process after the phone conference may do so on a form provided by the Court pursuant to ADR L.R. 3-5(b) or in their case management statement, or may file a separate stipulation and proposed order pursuant to ADR L.R. 2-3(b). Counsel shall send a copy of the stipulation to the ADR Unit.

(g) Selection at Case Management Conference.

(1) Consideration of ADR Processes. If the parties do not stipulate to a particular ADR process before the case management conference, the assigned Judge will discuss with the parties the selection of an option at that conference. The ADR Director or ADR Program Counsel may consult with the Judge before the case management conference and may recommend a specific ADR option for the case.

(2) Selection by Stipulation or Order. If the parties agree to a particular ADR process at the case management conference and the assigned Judge approves, the Judge will issue an order referring the case to that process. If the parties do not agree to an ADR process, and the Judge deems it appropriate, he or she will select one of the Court ADR processes (non-binding arbitration, subject to statutory jurisdictional constraints; ENE; or mediation) and issue an order referring the case to that process. Alternatively, the Judge may issue an order referring the case to an early settlement conference.

(3) Exemption. If the parties persuade the Judge at the case management conference that no ADR process is likely to deliver benefits to the parties sufficient to justify the resources consumed by its use, the Judge will exempt the case from participating in any ADR process.

Commentary

Samples of the form ADR Certification, Stipulation and Proposed Order Selecting an ADR Process, and Notice of Need for ADR Phone Conference are found in the Appendix to these Rules and may be accessed on the ADR Internet site.

3-6. Timing of ADR Process in the ADR Multi-Option Program.

Unless otherwise ordered, the timing of the ADR process is governed by the ADR Local Rule specific to each process.

Cross-Reference

See ADR L.R. 4-5, 5-4 , and 6-4 .

4. NON-BINDING ARBITRATION

4-1. Description.

Arbitration under this local rule is an adjudicative process in which an arbitrator or a panel of three arbitrators issues a non-binding judgment ("award") on the merits after an expedited, adversarial hearing. Either party may reject the non-binding award and request a trial de novo. An arbitration occurs earlier in the life of a case than a trial and is less formal and less expensive. Because testimony is taken under oath and is subject to cross-examination, arbitration can be especially useful in cases that turn on credibility of witnesses. Arbitrators do not facilitate settlement discussions.

4-2. Automatic Referral to Arbitration.

(a) Eligible Cases. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 654, any of the following civil actions seeking only money damages in an amount not exceeding $150,000, exclusive of punitive damages, interest, costs and attorney fees, and which do not allege violations of civil or constitutional rights, may be referred automatically by the Clerk to the arbitration program at filing:

(1) When United States is Not a Party. Actions founded on diversity of citizenship (28 U.S.C. § 1332), federal question (28 U.S.C. § 1331), admiralty or maritime jurisdiction (28 U.S.C. § 1333), and which arise under a contract or written instrument or out of personal injury or property damage.

(2) When United States is a Party. Actions which arise under the Federal Tort Claims Act (28 U.S.C. § 2671, et seq.); the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers Act (33 U.S.C. § 901, et seq.); the Miller Act (40 U.S.C. § 270b), when the United States has no monetary interest in the claim; or the Suits in Admiralty Act (46 U.S.C. § 741, et seq., § 781 et seq.) which involve no general average.

Commentary

The Alternative Dispute Resolution Act of 1998 authorizes referral of cases to arbitration (28 U.S.C. § 654). Section 654(d) authorizes the continuation of this Court's pre-existing arbitration program under which cases are automatically assigned, at the time of filing, to arbitration without consent of the parties.

(b) Determination of Monetary Claim.

(1) Separate Certification. In all cases otherwise subject to arbitration under this rule, the Court shall presume the damages claim to be for less than $150,000, exclusive of punitive damages, interest, costs and attorney fees, unless counsel asserting the claim files a separate certification that the damages reasonably recoverable exceed $150,000, exclusive of punitive damages, interest, costs and attorney fees. Any such certification must be filed by plaintiff within 30 days after the case was filed in this Court or by defendant at the time of filing a counterclaim or cross-claim.

(2) Determination. Notwithstanding the amount of damages alleged in a party's pleading or certification under ADR L.R. 4-2(b)(1), the assigned Judge may, acting sua sponte or in response to a motion under Civil L.R. 7, and after affording the parties an opportunity to be heard, require arbitration if satisfied that recoverable damages cannot reasonably exceed $150,000, exclusive of punitive damages, interest, costs and attorney fees.

(c) Relief from Automatic Referral.

(1) Selection of Different ADR Process. The assigned Judge will exempt a case from arbitration upon the filing, no later than 60 days after the case was filed, or within 20 days after the defendant's first appearance, of a stipulation and proposed order, under ADR L.R. 2-3(b), to mediation, ENE, or private ADR.

(2) Exemption. The assigned Judge may, sua sponte or on motion by any party under Civil L.R. 7 brought within 20 days after the moving party's first appearance, exempt any case from arbitration if the objectives of arbitration would not be realized because:

- (a) The case involves complex or novel legal issues;
- (b) Legal issues predominate over factual issues; or
- (c) For other good cause shown.

4-3. Referral by Stipulation.

A case that does not meet the criteria for automatic referral to arbitration at filing as set forth in ADR L.R. 4-2 may be referred to arbitration by order of the assigned Judge only upon the written consent of all parties. Consent must be given freely and knowingly and no party or attorney in any such case may be prejudiced for refusing to consent to participate in arbitration. If consent is given by fewer than all parties, no Judge to whom the case might be assigned shall be advised of the identity of any party or attorney who elected not to consent to arbitration.

4-4. Arbitrators.

(a) Selection. After entry of an order referring the case to arbitration, and after the expiration of time for filing a motion under ADR L.R. 4-2(c) to exempt the case from arbitration, the Clerk shall promptly furnish to each party a list of ten arbitrators randomly selected from the Court's panel. The parties shall then confer in the following manner to select a single arbitrator or, if all parties so request in writing, a panel of three arbitrators:

(1) Striking Names. Each side shall be entitled to strike two names from the list, plaintiff(s) to strike the first name, defendant(s) the next, then plaintiff(s) and then defendant(s).

(2) Ranking Names. The parties shall then select the arbitrator or panel from the remaining six names by alternately selecting one name; defendant(s) to make the first choice, plaintiff(s) the next, and continuing in this fashion.

(3) Submitting List. Within ten days of receipt of the original list of ten names, the parties shall list the six names in the order selected and submit them to the Clerk. If the parties fail to submit such a list within the prescribed time, the Clerk shall select an arbitrator at random from the original list of ten names.

ADR Local Rules

(4) Notification by Clerk. The Clerk shall promptly notify the person or persons whose names appear as the parties' first choice or choices of their selection, or, if the parties have not chosen, the person(s) the Clerk has selected. If any person so selected is unable or unwilling to serve, the Clerk shall notify the person whose name appears next on the list. If the Clerk is unable to select an arbitrator or constitute a panel of arbitrators from the six selections, the process of selection under this Rule shall be repeated. When the requisite number of arbitrators has agreed to serve, the Clerk shall promptly send written notice of the selections to the arbitrator(s) and to the parties. The rules governing conflicts of interest and the procedure for objecting to an arbitrator are set forth in ADR L.R. 2-5(d). When a panel of three arbitrators is selected, the Clerk shall designate the person to serve as the panel's presiding arbitrator.

(b) Compensation. Arbitrators shall be paid by the Court $250 per day or portion of each day of hearing in which they serve as a single arbitrator or $150 for each day or portion of each day in which they serve as a member of a panel of three. No party may offer or give the arbitrator(s) any gift.

(c) Payment and Reimbursement. When filing an award, arbitrators shall submit a voucher on the form prescribed by the Clerk for payment of compensation and for reimbursement of any reasonable transportation expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of duties under this Rule. No reimbursement will be made for any other expenses.

4-5. Timing and Scheduling the Hearing.

(a) Scheduling by Arbitrator. Promptly after being appointed to a case, the arbitrator(s) shall arrange for the pre-session phone conference under ADR L.R. 4-8 and, after consulting with all parties, shall fix the date and place for the arbitration not less than 10 days after the phone conference and within the deadline fixed by the assigned judge, or if no such deadline is fixed, within 70 days after the phone conference. Counsel shall respond promptly to and cooperate fully with the arbitrator(s) with respect to scheduling the pre-session phone conference and the arbitration hearing. The hearing date shall not be continued or vacated except for emergencies as established in writing and approved by the assigned Judge. If the case is resolved before the hearing date, or if due to an emergency a participant cannot attend the arbitration, counsel shall notify the arbitrator and the ADR Unit immediately upon learning of such settlement or emergency.

(b) Place and Time. The hearing may be held at any location within the Northern District of California selected by the arbitrator(s), including a room at a federal courthouse, if available. In selecting the location, the arbitrator(s) shall consider the convenience of the parties and witnesses. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the hearing shall be held during normal business hours.

4-6. Ex Parte Contact Prohibited.

Except with respect to scheduling matters, there shall be no ex parte communications between parties or counsel and an arbitrator.

4-7. Written Arbitration Statements.

(a) Time for Submission. No later than 10 calendar days before the arbitration session, each party shall submit directly to the arbitrator(s), and shall serve on all other parties, a written arbitration statement.

(b) Prohibition against Filing. The statements shall not be filed and the assigned Judge shall not have access to them.

(c) Content of Statement. The statements shall be concise and shall:

(1) Summarize the claims and defenses;

(2) Identify the significant contested factual and legal issues, citing authority on the questions of law;

(3) Identify proposed witnesses; and

(4) Identify, by name and title or status, the person(s) with decision-making authority, who, in addition to counsel, will attend the arbitration as representative(s) of the party.

(d) Modification of Requirement by Arbitrator(s). After jointly consulting counsel for all parties, the arbitrator(s) may modify or dispense with the requirements for the written arbitration statements.

4-8. Telephone Conference Before Arbitration.

The arbitrator(s) shall schedule a brief joint telephone conference with counsel before the arbitration to discuss matters such as the scheduling of the arbitration, the procedures to be followed, whether supplemental written material should be submitted, which witnesses will attend, how testimony will be presented, including expert testimony, and whether and how the arbitration will be recorded.

4-9. Attendance at Arbitration.

(a) Parties. Each party shall attend the arbitration hearing unless excused under paragraph (d), below. This requirement reflects the Court's view that principal values of arbitration include affording litigants an opportunity to articulate their positions and to hear, first hand, both their opponent's version of the matters in dispute and a neutral assessment of the merits of the case.

ADR Local Rules

(1) Corporation or Other Entity. A party other than a natural person (e.g., a corporation or an association) satisfies this attendance requirement if represented by a person (other than outside counsel) who is knowledgeable about the facts of the case.

(2) Government Entity. A party that is a government or governmental agency, in addition to counsel, shall send a representative knowledgeable about the facts of the case and the governmental unit's position. If the action is brought by the government on behalf of one or more individuals, at least one such individual also shall attend.

(b) Counsel. Each party shall be accompanied at the arbitration session by the lawyer who will be primarily responsible for handling the trial of the matter.

(c) Request to be Excused. A person who is required to attend an arbitration hearing may be excused from attending in person only after a showing that personal attendance would impose an extraordinary or otherwise unjustifiable hardship. A person seeking to be excused must submit, no fewer than 15 days before the date set for the arbitration, a letter to the ADR Magistrate Judge, simultaneously copying the ADR Unit, all other counsel and the arbitrator(s). The letter shall:

(1) Set forth with specificity all considerations that support the request;

(2) State realistically the amount in controversy in the case;

(3) Indicate whether the other party or parties join in or object to the request; and

(4) Be accompanied by a proposed order.

(d) Participation by Telephone. A person excused from attending an arbitration in person shall be available to participate by telephone.

4-10. Authority of Arbitrators and Procedures at Arbitration.

(a) Authority of Arbitrators. Subject to the provisions of these ADR local rules, arbitrators shall be authorized to:

(1) Administer oaths and affirmations;

(2) Make reasonable rulings as are necessary for the fair and efficient conduct of the hearing; and

(3) Make awards.

ADR Local Rules

(b) Prohibition on Facilitating Settlement Discussions. Arbitrators are not authorized to facilitate settlement discussions. If the parties desire assistance with settlement, the parties or arbitrator(s) may request that the case be referred to mediation, ENE, or a settlement conference.

(c) Presumption against Bifurcation. Except in extraordinary circumstances, the arbitrator(s) shall not bifurcate the arbitration.

(d) Quorum. Where a panel of three arbitrators has been named, any two members of a panel shall constitute a quorum, but the concurrence of a majority of the entire panel shall be required for any action or decision by the panel, unless the parties stipulate otherwise.

(e) Testimony.

(1) Subpoenas. Attendance of witnesses and production of documents may be compelled in accordance with FRCivP 45.

(2) Oath and Cross-examination. All testimony shall be taken under oath or affirmation and shall be subject to such reasonable cross-examination as the circumstances warrant.

(3) Evidence. In receiving evidence, the arbitrator(s) shall be guided by the Federal Rules of Evidence, but shall not thereby be precluded from receiving evidence which the arbitrator(s) consider(s) relevant and trustworthy and which is not privileged.

(f) Transcript or Recording. A party may cause a transcript or recording of the proceedings to be made but shall provide a copy to any other party who requests it and who agrees to pay the reasonable costs of having a copy made.

(g) Default of Party. The unexcused absence of a party shall not be a ground for continuance, but damages shall be awarded against an absent party only upon presentation of proof thereof satisfactory to the arbitrator(s).

4-11. Award and Judgment.

(a) Form of Award. An award shall be made after an arbitration under this Rule. Such an award shall state clearly and concisely the name or names of the prevailing party or parties and the party or parties against which it is rendered, and the precise amount of money, if any, awarded. It shall be in writing and (unless the parties stipulate otherwise) be signed by the arbitrator or by at least two members of a panel. No arbitrator shall participate in the award without having attended the hearing. Costs within the meaning of FRCivP 54 and Civil L.R. 54 may be assessed by the arbitrator(s) as part of an arbitration award.

(b) Filing and Serving the Award. Within 10 days after the arbitration hearing is concluded, the arbitrator(s) shall file the award with the Clerk in an unsealed envelope with a cover sheet stating: "Arbitration Award to be filed under seal pursuant to ADR L.R. 4-11--not to be forwarded to the Assigned Judge." The cover sheet also shall list the case caption, case number and name(s) of the arbitrator, but shall not specify the content of the award. The Clerk shall promptly serve copies of the arbitration award on the parties. In addition, immediately after receiving a copy of the arbitration award, the party that prevailed in the arbitration shall serve a copy of the award on the other parties and shall promptly file proof of said service under Civil L.R. 5, but shall not attach a copy of the award.

(c) Sealing of Award. Each filed arbitration award shall promptly be sealed by the Clerk. The award shall not be disclosed to any Judge who might be assigned to the case until the Court has entered final judgment in the action or the action has been otherwise terminated, except as necessary to assess costs or prepare the report required by Section 903(b) of the Judicial Improvements and Access to Justice Act.

(d) Entry of Judgment on Award. If no party has filed a demand for trial de novo (or a notice of appeal, which shall be treated as a demand for trial de novo) within 30 days of notice of the filing of the arbitration award, the Clerk shall enter judgment on the arbitration award in accordance with FRCivP 58. A judgment so entered shall be subject to the same provisions of law and shall have the same force and effect as a judgment of the Court in a civil action, except that the judgment shall not be subject to review in any other court by appeal or otherwise.

4-12. Trial De Novo.

(a) Time for Demand. If any party files and serves a demand for trial de novo within 30 days of notice of the filing of the arbitration award, no judgment thereon shall be entered by the Clerk and the action shall proceed in the normal manner before the assigned Judge. Failure to file and serve a demand for trial de novo within this 30-day period waives the right to trial de novo.

ADR Local Rules

(b) Limitation on Admission of Evidence. At the trial de novo the Court shall not admit any evidence indicating that there has been an arbitration proceeding, the nature or amount of any award, or any other matter concerning the conduct of the arbitration proceeding, unless:

- (1) The evidence would otherwise be admissible in the trial under the Federal Rules of Evidence, or
- (2) The parties have otherwise stipulated.

(c) Award Not to be Attached. A party filing a demand for a trial de novo shall not attach the arbitration award.

4-13. Stipulation to Binding Arbitration.

At any time before the arbitration hearing, the parties may stipulate in writing to waive their rights to request a trial de novo pursuant to ADR L.R. 4-12. Such stipulation shall be submitted to the assigned Judge for approval and shall be filed.

4-14. Federal Arbitration Act Presumptively Inapplicable.

Nothing in these ADR Local Rules limits any party's right to agree to arbitrate any dispute, regardless of the amount, pursuant to Title 9, United States Code, or any other provision of law.

5. EARLY NEUTRAL EVALUATION

5-1. Description.

In Early Neutral Evaluation (ENE) the parties and their counsel, in a confidential session, make compact presentations of their claims and defenses, including key evidence as developed at that juncture, and receive a non-binding evaluation by an experienced neutral lawyer with subject matter expertise. The evaluator also helps identify areas of agreement, offers case-planning suggestions and, if requested by the parties, settlement assistance.

5-2. Eligible Cases.

Subject to the availability of administrative resources and of an evaluator with subject matter expertise, appropriate civil cases may be referred to ENE by order of the assigned Judge following a stipulation by all parties, on motion by a party under Civil L.R. 7, or on the Judge's initiative.

Cross Reference

5-3. Evaluators.

(a) Appointment. After entry of an order referring a case to ENE, the ADR Unit will appoint from the Court's panel an evaluator who has expertise in the subject matter of the lawsuit, is available during the appropriate period and has no apparent conflict of interest. The Court will notify the parties of the appointment. The rules governing conflicts of interest and the procedure for objecting to an evaluator on that basis are set forth in ADR L.R. 2-5(d).

(b) Compensation. ENE evaluators shall volunteer their preparation time and the first four hours in an ENE session. After four hours in an ENE session, the evaluator may either (1) continue to volunteer his or her time or (2) give the parties the option of concluding the procedure or paying the evaluator for additional time at an hourly rate of $200. The ENE procedure will continue only if all parties and the evaluator agree. After eight hours in one or more ENE sessions, if all parties agree, the evaluator may charge his or her hourly rate or such other rate that all parties agree to pay. In special circumstances for complex cases requiring substantial preparation time, the parties and the evaluator may make other arrangements with the approval of the ADR Director or ADR Program Counsel. No party may offer or give the evaluator any gift.

(c) Payment. All terms and conditions of payment must be clearly communicated to the parties. The parties may agree to pay the fee in other than equal portions. The parties shall pay the evaluator directly. On a questionnaire form provided by the Court, the evaluator shall promptly report to the ADR Unit the amount of any payment received.

5-4. Timing and Scheduling the ENE Session.

(a) Scheduling by Evaluator. Promptly after being appointed to a case, the evaluator shall arrange for the pre-session phone conference under ADR L.R. 5-7 and, after consulting with all parties, shall fix the date and place of the ENE session within the deadlines set by paragraph (b) below, or the order referring the case to ENE. Counsel shall respond promptly to and cooperate fully with the evaluator with respect to scheduling the pre-session phone conference and the ENE session.

(b) Deadline for Conducting Session. Unless otherwise ordered, the ENE session shall be held within 90 days after the initial case management conference or the issuance of the initial case management order, whichever occurs first.

5-5. Requests to Extend Deadline.

(a) Motion Required. Requests for extension of the deadline for conducting an ENE session shall be made no later than 15 days before the session is to be held and shall be directed to the assigned Judge, in a motion under Civil L.R. 7, with a copy to the other parties, the evaluator (if appointed) and the ADR Unit.

(b) Content of Motion. Such motion shall:

- (1) Detail the considerations that support the request;
- (2) Indicate whether the other parties concur in or object to the request; and
- (3) Be accompanied by a proposed order setting forth a new deadline by which the ENE session shall be held.

5-6. Ex Parte Contact Prohibited.

Except with respect to scheduling matters, there shall be no ex parte communications between parties or counsel and the evaluator, including private caucuses to discuss settlement, until after the evaluator has committed his or her evaluation to a writing and all parties have agreed that ex parte communications with the evaluator may occur.

5-7. Telephone Conference Before ENE Session.

The evaluator shall schedule a brief joint telephone conference with counsel before the ENE session to discuss matters such as the scheduling of the ENE session, the procedures to be followed, the nature of the case, and which client representatives will attend.

5-8. Written ENE Statements.

(a) Time for Submission. No later than 10 calendar days before the first ENE session, each party shall submit directly to the evaluator, and shall serve on all other parties, a written ENE Statement.

(b) Prohibition Against Filing. The statements shall not be filed and the assigned Judge shall not have access to them.

(c) Content of Statement. The statements shall be concise, may include any information that may be useful to the evaluator, and shall:

(1) Identify, by name and title or status:

(A) The person(s) with decision-making authority, who, in addition to counsel, will attend the ENE session as representative(s) of the party, and

(B) Persons connected with a party opponent (including an insurer representative) whose presence might substantially improve the utility of the ENE session or the prospects for settlement;

(2) Describe briefly the substance of the suit, addressing the party's views of the key liability issues and damages and discussing the key evidence;

(3) Address whether there are legal or factual issues whose early resolution would reduce significantly the scope of the dispute or contribute to settlement negotiations;

(4) Identify the discovery that is necessary to equip the parties for meaningful settlement negotiations;

(5) Describe the history and status of any settlement negotiations; and

(6) Include copies of documents out of which the suit arose (e.g., contracts), or whose availability would materially advance the purposes of the evaluation session, (e.g., medical reports or documents by which special damages might be determined).

5-9. Special Provisions for Patent, Copyright, or Trademark Cases.

(a) Patent Cases. A party who bases a claim on a patent shall attach to its written statement a Claim Chart under the Court's local rules for patent cases, if made, or an element-by-element analysis of the relationship between the applicable claims in the patent and the allegedly infringing product. Also the party shall describe in its written statement its theory or theories of damages and shall set forth all available information that supports each theory. A party who asserts a defense against the patent based on "prior art" shall attach an Initial Disclosure of Asserted Claims and Prior Art or Response Chart under the Court's local rules for patent cases, if made, or an exhibit that identifies each known example of alleged prior art and that describes the relationship between each such example of prior art and the claims of the patent. In addition, if such party denies infringement, it shall describe the basis for such denial.

(b) Copyright Cases. A party who bases a claim on copyright shall include as exhibits the copyright registration and exemplars of both the copyrighted work and the allegedly infringing work, and shall make a systematic comparison showing points of similarity. Such party shall also present whatever direct or indirect evidence it has of copying, and shall indicate whether it intends to elect statutory or actual damages. Each party in a copyright case who is accused of infringing shall set forth in its written statement the dollar volume of sales of and profits from the allegedly infringing works that it and any entities for which it is legally responsible have made.

(c) Trademark Cases. A party who bases a claim on trademark or trade dress infringement, or on other unfair competition, shall include as an exhibit its registration, if any, exemplars of both its use of its mark and use of the allegedly infringing mark, both including a description or representation of the goods or services on or in connection with which the marks are used, and any evidence it has of actual confusion. If "secondary meaning" is in issue, such a party shall also describe the nature and extent of the advertising it has done with its mark and the volume of goods it has sold under its mark. Both parties shall describe in their evaluation statements how the consuming public is exposed to their respective marks and goods or services, including, if available, photographic or other demonstrative evidence. Each party in a trademark or unfair competition case who is accused of infringement shall set forth the dollar volume of sales of and profits from goods or services bearing the allegedly infringing mark.

5-10. Attendance at Session.

(a) Parties. All named parties and their counsel are required to attend the ENE session unless excused under paragraph (d), below. This requirement reflects the Court's view that the principal values of ENE include affording litigants opportunities to articulate directly to other parties and a neutral their positions and interests and to hear, first hand, both their opponent's version of the matters in dispute and a neutral assessment of the merits of the case and the relative strengths of each party's legal positions.

(1) Corporation or Other Entity. A party other than a natural person (e.g., a corporation or an association) satisfies this attendance requirement if represented by a person (other than outside counsel) who has authority to settle and who is knowledgeable about the facts of the case.

(2) Government Entity. A unit or agency of government satisfies this attendance requirement if represented by a person who has, to the greatest extent feasible, authority to settle, and who is knowledgeable about the facts of the case, the governmental unit's position, and the procedures and policies under which the governmental unit decides whether to accept proposed settlements.

If the action is brought by the government on behalf of one or more individuals, at least one such individual also shall attend.

(b) Counsel. Each party shall be accompanied at the ENE session by the lawyer who will be primarily responsible for handling the trial of the matter.

(c) Insurers. Insurer representatives are required to attend in person unless excused under paragraph (d), below, if their agreement would be necessary to achieve a settlement.

(d) Request to be Excused. A person who is required to attend an ENE session may be excused from attending in person only after a showing that personal attendance would impose an extraordinary or otherwise unjustifiable hardship. A person seeking to be excused must submit, no fewer than 15 days before the date set for the session, a letter to the ADR Magistrate Judge, simultaneously copying the ADR Unit, all counsel and the evaluator. The letter shall:

(1) Set forth all considerations that support the request;

(2) State realistically the amount in controversy in the case;

(3) Indicate whether the other party or parties join in or object to the request, and

(4) Be accompanied by a proposed order.

(e) Participation by Telephone. A person excused from appearing in person at an ENE session shall be available to participate by telephone.

5-11. Procedure at ENE Session.

(a) Components of ENE Session.

The evaluator shall:

(1) Permit each party (through counsel or otherwise), orally and through documents or other media, to present its claims or defenses and to describe the principal evidence on which they are based;

(2) Help the parties identify areas of agreement and, where feasible, enter stipulations;

(3) Assess the relative strengths and weaknesses of the parties' contentions and evidence, and explain carefully the reasoning that supports these assessments;

(4) Estimate, where feasible, the likelihood of liability and the dollar range of damages;

(5) Help the parties devise a plan for sharing the important information and/or conducting the key discovery that will equip them as expeditiously as possible to enter meaningful settlement discussions or to position the case for disposition by other means;

(6) Help the parties assess litigation costs realistically; and

(7) If the parties are interested, help them, through private caucusing or otherwise, explore the possibility of settling the case;

(8) Determine whether some form of follow up to the session would contribute to the case development process or to settlement.

(b) Process Rules. The session shall be informal. Rules of evidence shall not apply. There shall be no formal examination or cross-examination of witnesses and no recording of the presentations or discussion shall be made.

(c) Evaluation and Settlement Discussions. If all parties stipulate, they may proceed to discuss settlement after the evaluation has been written but before it is presented. The evaluation shall be presented orally on demand by any party.

5-12. Confidentiality.

(a) Confidential Treatment. Except as provided in subdivision (b) of this local rule, this court, the evaluator, all counsel and parties, and any other persons attending the ENE session shall treat as “confidential information” anything that happened or was said, any position taken, and any view of the merits of the case formed by any participant in connection with any ENE session. “Confidential information” shall not be:

(1) disclosed to anyone not involved in the litigation;

(2) disclosed to the assigned judge; or

(3) used for any purpose, including impeachment, in any pending or future proceeding in this court.

(b) Limited Exceptions to Confidentiality. This rule does not prohibit:

(1) disclosures as may be stipulated by all parties and the evaluator;

(2) a report to or an inquiry by the ADR Magistrate Judge pursuant to ADR L.R. 2-4(a) regarding a possible violation of the ADR Local Rules;

(3) the evaluator from discussing the ENE session with the court’s ADR staff, who shall maintain the confidentiality of the ENE session;

(4) any participant or the evaluator from responding to an appropriate request for information duly made by persons authorized by the court to monitor or evaluate the court’s ADR program in accordance with ADR L.R. 2-6; or

(5) disclosures as are otherwise required by law.

(c) Confidentiality Agreement. The evaluator may ask the parties and all person attending the ENE session to sign a confidentiality agreement on a form provided by the court.

ADR Local Rules

Commentary

Ordinarily, as with mediation, anything that happened or was said in connection with an ENE session is confidential. See, e.g., Fed. R. Evid. 408; Cal. Evid. Code Sections 703.5 and 1115-1128. The law may provide some limited circumstances in which the need for disclosure outweighs the importance of protecting the confidentiality of an ENE session. E.g., threats of death or substantial bodily injury (see Or. Rev. Stat. Section 3 6.220(6)); use of mediation to commit a felony (see Colo. Rev. Stat. Section 13-22-307); right to effective cross examination in a quasi-criminal proceeding (see Rinaker v. Superior Court, 62 Cal.App.4th 155 (3d Dist. 1998)); lawyer duty to report misconduct (see In re Waller, 573 A.2d 780 (D.C. App. 1990)); need to prevent manifest injustice (see Ohio Rev. Code Section 23 17.023 (c)(4)). Accordingly, after application of legal tests which are appropriately sensitive to the policies supporting the confidentiality of ENE proceedings, the court may consider whether the interest in ENE confidentiality outweighs the asserted need for disclosure. See amended opinion in Olam v. Congress Mortgage Company, 68 F. Supp. 2d 1110 (N.D. Cal. 1999).

5-13. Follow Up.

(a) Discussion at Close of ENE. At the close of the ENE session, the evaluator and the parties shall discuss whether it would be beneficial to schedule any follow up to the session.

(b) Follow Up the Evaluator May Order. The evaluator may order these kinds of follow up without stipulation:

(1) Responses to settlement offers or demands;

(2) A focused telephone conference;

(3) Exchanges of letters between counsel addressing specified legal or factual issues; or

(4) Written or telephonic reports to the evaluator, e.g., describing how discovery or other events occurring after the ENE session have affected a party's analysis of the case or position with respect to settlement.

(c) Stipulation to Follow Up Session. With the consent of all parties, the evaluator may schedule one or more follow up ENE sessions that may include additional evaluation, settlement discussions, or case development planning.

(d) Limitations on Authority of Evaluator. Evaluators have no authority to compel parties to conduct or respond to discovery or to file motions. Nor do evaluators have authority to determine what the issues in any case are, to impose limits on parties' pretrial activities, or to impose sanctions.

5-14. Certification of Session.

ADR Local Rules

Within 10 days of the close of each ENE session, and on the form Certification of Session provided by the Court, the evaluator shall report to the ADR Unit: the date of the session, whether any follow up is scheduled, whether the case settled in whole or in part, and any stipulations the parties agree may be disclosed. The ADR Unit will file the certification.

6. MEDIATION

6-1. Description.

Mediation is a flexible, non-binding, confidential process in which a neutral person (the mediator) facilitates settlement negotiations. The mediator improves communication across party lines, helps parties articulate their interests and understand those of their opponent, probes the strengths and weaknesses of each party's legal positions, identifies areas of agreement and helps generate options for a mutually agreeable resolution to the dispute. The mediator generally does not give an overall evaluation of the case. A hallmark of mediation is its capacity to expand traditional settlement discussion and broaden resolution options, often by exploring litigant needs and interests that may be formally independent of the legal issues in controversy.

6-2. Eligible Cases.

Subject to the availability of administrative resources and of a suitable mediator, appropriate civil cases may be referred to mediation by order of the assigned Judge following a stipulation by all parties, on motion by a party under Civil L.R. 7, or on the Judge's initiative.

6-3. Mediators.

(a) Appointment. After entry of an order referring a case to mediation, the ADR Unit will appoint from the Court's panel a mediator who is available during the appropriate period and has no apparent conflict of interest. The Court will notify the parties of the appointment. The rules governing conflicts of interest and the procedure for objecting to a mediator on that basis are set forth in ADR L.R. 2-5(d).

(b) Compensation. Mediators shall volunteer their preparation time and the first four hours in a mediation. After four hours of mediation, the mediator may either (1) continue to volunteer his or her time or (2) give the parties the option of concluding the procedure or paying the mediator for additional time at an hourly rate of $200. The procedure will continue only if all parties and the mediator agree. After eight hours in one or more mediation sessions, if all parties agree, the mediator may charge his or her hourly rate or such other rate that all parties agree to pay. In special circumstances for complex cases requiring substantial preparation time, the parties and the mediator may make other arrangements with the approval of the ADR Director or ADR Program Counsel. No party may offer or give the mediator any gift.

(c) Payment. All terms and conditions of payment must be clearly communicated to the parties. The parties may agree to pay the fee in other than equal portions. The parties shall pay the mediator directly. On a form questionnaire provided by the Court, the mediator shall promptly report to the ADR Unit the amount of any payment received.

6-4. Timing and Scheduling the Mediation.

(a) Scheduling by Mediator. Promptly after being appointed to a case, the mediator shall arrange for the pre-mediation conference under ADR L.R. 6-6 and, after consulting with all parties, shall fix the date and place of the mediation within the deadlines set by paragraph (b) below, or the order referring the case to mediation. Counsel shall respond promptly to and cooperate fully with the mediator with respect to scheduling the pre-session phone conference and the mediation session.

(b) Deadline for Conducting Mediation. Unless otherwise ordered, the mediation shall be held within 90 days after the initial Case Management Conference or issuance of the initial case management order, whichever occurs first.

6-5. Request To Extend the Deadline.

(a) Motion Required. Requests for extension of the deadline for conducting a mediation shall be made no later than 15 days before the session is to be held and shall be directed to the assigned Judge, in a motion under Civil L.R. 7, with a copy to the other parties, the mediator (if appointed) and the ADR Unit.

(b) Content of Motion. Such motion shall:

- (1) Detail the considerations that support the request;
- (2) Indicate whether the other parties concur in or object to the request; and
- (3) Be accompanied by a proposed order setting forth a new deadline by which the mediation shall be held.

6-6. Telephone Conference Before Mediation.

The mediator shall schedule a brief joint telephone conference with counsel before the mediation session to discuss matters such as the scheduling of the mediation, the procedures to be followed, the nature of the case, and which client representatives will attend.

6-7. Written Mediation Statements.

(a) Time for Submission. No later than 10 calendar days before the first mediation session, each party shall submit directly to the mediator, and shall serve on all other parties, a written Mediation Statement.

(b) Prohibition Against Filing. The statements shall not be filed and the assigned Judge shall not have access to them.

(c) Content of Statement. The statements shall be concise, may include any information that may be useful to the mediator, and shall:

(1) Identify, by name and title or status:

(A) The person(s) with decision-making authority, who, in addition to counsel, will attend the mediation as representative(s) of the party, and

(B) Persons connected with a party opponent (including an insurer representative) whose presence might substantially improve the utility of the mediation or the prospects for settlement;

(2) Describe briefly the substance of the suit, addressing the party's views of the key liability issues and damages and discussing the key evidence;

(3) Identify the discovery or motions that promise to contribute most to equipping the parties for meaningful settlement negotiations;

(4) Describe the history and current status of any settlement negotiations and provide any other information about any interests or considerations not described elsewhere in the statement that might be pertinent to settlement; and

(5) Include copies of documents likely to make the mediation more productive or to materially advance settlement prospects.

6-8. Contact with Mediator Before the Mediation.

Before the mediation, the mediator may ask each party to submit only to the mediator an additional confidential written statement or may discuss the case in confidence with a lawyer during a telephone conversation. The mediator shall not disclose any party's confidential communication without permission.

6-9. Attendance at Session.

(a) Parties. All named parties and their counsel are required to attend the mediation unless excused under paragraph (d), below. This requirement reflects the Court's view that the principal values of mediation include affording litigants opportunities to articulate directly to the other parties and a neutral their positions and interests and to hear, first hand, their opponent's version of the matters in dispute. Mediation also enables parties to search directly with their opponents for mutually agreeable solutions.

ADR Local Rules

(1) Corporation or Other Entity. A party other than a natural person (e.g., a corporation or an association) satisfies this attendance requirement if represented by a person (other than outside counsel) who has authority to settle and who is knowledgeable about the facts of the case.

(2) Government Entity. A unit or agency of government satisfies this attendance requirement if represented by a person who has, to the greatest extent feasible, authority to settle, and who is knowledgeable about the facts of the case, the governmental unit's position, and the procedures and policies under which the governmental unit decides whether to accept proposed settlements.

If the action is brought by the government on behalf of one or more individuals, at least one such individual also shall attend.

(b) Counsel. Each party shall be accompanied at the mediation by the lawyer who will be primarily responsible for handling the trial of the matter.

(c) Insurers. Insurer representatives are required to attend in person unless excused under paragraph (d), below, if their agreement would be necessary to achieve a settlement.

(d) Request to be Excused. A person who is required to attend a mediation may be excused from attending in person only after a showing that personal attendance would impose an extraordinary or otherwise unjustifiable hardship. A person seeking to be excused must submit, no fewer than 15 days before the date set for the mediation, a letter to the ADR Magistrate Judge, simultaneously copying the ADR unit, all counsel and the mediator. The letter shall:

(1) Set forth all considerations that support the request;

(2) State realistically the amount in controversy in the case;

(3) Indicate whether the other party or parties join in or object to the request, and

(4) Be accompanied by a proposed order.

(d) Participation by Telephone. A person excused from appearing in person at a mediation shall be available to participate by telephone.

6-10. Procedure at Mediation.

(a) Procedure. The mediation shall be informal. Mediators shall have discretion to structure the mediation so as to maximize the benefits of the process .

(b) Separate Caucuses. The mediator may hold separate, private caucuses with each side or each lawyer or, if the parties agree, with the clients only. The mediator may not disclose communications made during such a caucus to another party or counsel without the consent of the party who made the communication.

6-11. Confidentiality.

(a) Confidential Treatment. Except as provided in subdivision (b) of this local rule, this court, the mediator, all counsel and parties, and any other persons attending the mediation shall treat as “confidential information” anything that happened or was said, any position taken, and any view of the merits of the case formed by any participant in connection with any mediation. “Confidential information” shall not be:

(1) disclosed to anyone not involved in the litigation;

(2) disclosed to the assigned judge; or

(3) used for any purpose, including impeachment, in any pending or future proceeding in this court.

(b) Limited Exceptions to Confidentiality. This rule does not prohibit:

(1) disclosures as may be stipulated by all parties and the mediator;

(2) a report to or an inquiry by the ADR Magistrate Judge pursuant to ADR L.R. 2-4(a) regarding a possible violation of the ADR Local Rules;

(3) the mediator from discussing the mediation with the court’s ADR staff, who shall maintain the confidentiality of the mediation;

(4) any participant or the mediator from responding to an appropriate request for information duly made by persons authorized by the court to monitor or evaluate the court’s ADR program in accordance with ADR L.R. 2-6; or

(5) disclosures as are otherwise required by law.

ADR Local Rules

(c) Confidentiality Agreement. The mediator may ask the parties and all persons attending the mediation to sign a confidentiality agreement on a form provided by the court.

Commentary

Ordinarily, anything that happened or was said in connection with a mediation is confidential. See, e.g., Fed. R. Evid. 408; Cal. Evid. Code Sections 703.5 and 1115-1128. The law may provide some limited circumstances in which the need for disclosure outweighs the importance of protecting the confidentiality of a mediation. E.g., threats of death or substantial bodily injury (see Or. Rev. Stat. Section 36.220 (6)); use of mediation to commit a felony (see Colo. Rev. Stat. Section 13-22-307); right to effective cross examination in a quasi-criminal proceeding (see Rinaker v. Superior Court, 62 Cal.App.4th 155 (3d Dist. 1998); lawyer duty to report misconduct (see In re Waller, 573 A.2d 780 (D.C. App. 1990); need to prevent manifest injustice (see Ohio Rev. Code Section 2317.023(c)(4). Accordingly, after application of legal tests which are appropriately sensitive to the policies supporting the confidentiality of mediation proceedings, the court may consider whether the interest in mediation confidentiality outweighs the asserted need for disclosure. See amended opinion in Olam v. Congress Mortgage Company, 68 F. Supp. 2d 1110 (N.D. Cal. 1999).

6-12. Follow Up.

At the close of the mediation session, the mediator and the parties shall jointly determine whether it would be appropriate to schedule a follow up session. Such follow up could include, but need not be limited to, written or telephonic reports that the parties might make to one another or to the mediator, exchange of specified kinds of information, or another mediation session.

6-13. Certification of Session.

Within 10 days of the close of each mediation session and on the form Certification of Session provided by the Court, the mediator shall report to the ADR Unit: the date the session was held, whether the case settled in whole or in part, whether any follow up is scheduled, and any stipulations the parties agree may be disclosed. The ADR Unit will file the certification.

7. SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES

7-1. Description.

In a settlement conference, a judicial officer, usually a Magistrate Judge, facilitates the parties' efforts to negotiate a settlement. Some settlement Judges use mediation techniques in the settlement conference to improve communication among the parties, probe barriers to settlement, and assist in formulating resolutions. A settlement Judge might articulate views about the merits of the case or the relative strengths and weaknesses of the parties' legal positions.

7-2. Referral to a Settlement Conference.

The Court may refer a case to a settlement conference on its own initiative, on the request of a party, or upon stipulation of the parties. A settlement conference generally will be conducted by a Magistrate Judge, but in some limited circumstances may be conducted by a District Judge. Upon written stipulation of all parties, the assigned Judge, in the exercise of his or her discretion, may conduct a settlement conference.

7-3. Request of a Party.

For cases assigned to the ADR Multi-Option Program, at any time after the ADR phone conference, a party may file with the assigned Judge a request for a settlement conference, pursuant to Civil L.R. 7. In all other cases, a party may file such a request at any time after the action has been commenced. The parties may stipulate to a preference for one or more particular Magistrate Judges or District Judges. The Court will attempt to honor the preference, subject to intra-division needs and the availability of the Magistrate Judges and District Judges.

7-4. Directives from the Settlement Judge.

Within any constraints fixed by the referring Judge, the settlement Judge shall notify the parties of the time and date of the settlement conference. The settlement Judge also shall notify the parties of his or her requirements for pre-conference submissions and for attendance at the settlement conference. The settlement Judge may order parties to attend. Unless the settlement Judge otherwise specifies, "attendance" at a settlement conference is governed by the following:

(a) Corporation or Other Entity. A party other than a natural person (e.g., a corporation or an association) satisfies this attendance requirement if represented by a person (other than outside counsel) who has authority to settle and who is knowledgeable about the facts of the case.

ADR Local Rules

(b) Government Entity. A unit or agency of government satisfies this attendance requirement if represented by a person who has, to the greatest extent feasible, authority to settle, and who is knowledgeable about the facts of the case, the governmental unit's position, and the procedures and policies under which the governmental unit decides whether to accept proposed settlements. If the action is brought by the government on behalf of one or more individuals, at least one such individual also shall attend.

(c) Insurers. Unless excused by the settlement Judge, insurer representatives are required to attend in person if their agreement would be necessary to achieve a settlement.

7-5. Settlement Conference Confidentiality.

(a) Confidential Treatment. Except as provided in subdivision (b) of this local rule, this court, the settlement judge, all counsel and parties, and any other persons attending the settlement conference shall treat as "confidential information" anything that happened or was said, any position taken, and any view of the merits of the case formed by any participant in connection with any settlement conference. "Confidential information" shall not be:

(1) disclosed to anyone not involved in the litigation;

(2) disclosed to the assigned judge; or

(3) used for any purpose, including impeachment, in any pending or future proceeding in this court.

(b) Limited Exceptions to Confidentiality. This rule does not prohibit:

(1) disclosures as may be stipulated by all parties;

(2) any participant or the settlement judge from responding to an appropriate request for information duly made by persons authorized by the court to monitor or evaluate the court's ADR program in accordance with ADR L.R. 2-6; or

(3) disclosures as are necessary to preserve the court's capacity to enforce lawful orders or to discipline contumacious conduct, or as are otherwise required by law.

8. OTHER ADR PROCESSES

8-1. Other Court ADR Processes.

(a) Non-binding Summary Bench or Jury Trial. A summary bench or jury trial is a flexible, non-binding process designed to promote settlement in complex, trial-ready cases headed for protracted trials. The process provides litigants and their counsel with an advisory verdict after a short hearing in which the evidence may be presented in condensed form, usually by counsel and sometimes through witnesses. This procedure, as ordinarily structured, provides the litigants an opportunity to ask questions and hear the reactions of the Judge or jury. The Judge's or jury's nonbinding verdict and reactions to the legal and factual arguments are used as bases for subsequent settlement negotiations. Parties considering a non-binding summary trial are encouraged to contact the ADR Unit for assistance in structuring a summary trial tailored to their case.

(b) Special Masters. The Court may appoint special masters to serve a wide variety of functions, including, but not limited to: discovery manager, fact finder or host of settlement negotiations. Generally the parties pay the master's fees.

8-2. Private ADR.

There are numerous private sector providers of ADR services including arbitration, mediation, fact-finding, neutral evaluation and private judging. Private providers may be lawyers, law professors, retired Judges or other professionals with expertise in dispute resolution techniques. Virtually all private sector providers charge fees for their services. The Court does not ordinarily refer cases to private providers except on the stipulation of the parties. The assigned Judge will take appropriate steps to assure that a referral to private ADR does not result in an imposition on any party of an unfair or unreasonable economic burden.
